In contemporary literary studies, a theme is the central topic a text treats. Themes can be divided into two categories: a work's thematic concept is what readers "think the work is about" and its thematic statement being "what the work says about the subject".

Theme (narrative) - Wikipedia

Postmodern literature is literature characterized by reliance on narrative techniques such as fragmentation, paradox, and the unreliable narrator; and is often (though not exclusively) defined as a style or a trend which emerged in the post-World War II era.

Thanks for this essay! I think there is a strong age component in canon reading. In high school (German Gymnasium), I only took a basic course in German literature, which included shorter works from the 18th-20th century, and a few 20th century novels (I remember Professor Unrat by Heinrich Mann and Homo Faber by Max Frisch, both of them very ...
